

Who Care?

A year ago this old woman was hit by a truck on the road. The truck hit her and ran away.

She was thought to be dead and left lying on the road.

Eventually she was not dead but both of her legs were severely broken and beyond repair.

She becomes disable. She cannot walk without walking frame.

She has no relatives, no money and no food.

She lives in a small thatch-roofed house, two square meters big, on the side of the road in Sam Dow village.

She lives on generosity of the passerby for her daily living.

Our evangelist use to visit her and offer her some foods occasionally.

We give her a few packets of dry noodles and condense milk on our visit.

She said she is a believer.

We prayed with her and gave her words of encouragement and comfort.

Her legs are still not yet healed.
She uses to wrap her wounds on her legs with local traditional herbal medicine which gives a very bad smell.

Luke 18:22

When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

Gal 2:10

All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do.

Thanks for your support
